Dear Zoo

“Dear Zoo” was written as a lift-the-flap board book in 1982, by the Scottish author, Rod Campbell. It is his most famous work, and thirty-five years later, it is still tremendously popular among the under fives in Great Britain, and has been translated into more than a dozen different languages.

Dear Zoo: A Lift-the-Flap Book by Rod Campbell

Dear Zoo is a 'lift the flap' book about a child who sends a letter to the zoo asking the zoo to send a pet. Various letters are sent, 'pets' arrive and are then sent back as unsuitable for a variety of reasons, e.g. the elephant is too big, the lion too fierce, the giraffe too tall, the monkey too naughty, the snake too scary.

She really likes flap books and tends to ignore all the other books without flaps. The other two books in this set do not have flaps and are sort of boring and like many other children's books. I wish I had only bought Dear Zoo because it is a lot more creative and cuter while also adding in the fun of the flaps for a small child.

I have always owned and cared for dogs, cats, horses, parrots, macaws, goats, pigs and other exotic and even wild pets, such as ravens, magpies, and raccoons, even had a pet skunk. I was an co-owner and operator of "Paws Animal Rescue of Apple Valley, Utah" for years until I moved to Washington. It was quite the zoo.
