Fallout Books - Goodreads

Skill books in Fallout 2 can be used to increase a character's skill in specific areas of study. Using a book removes it from inventory. Other books are used in quests. In Fallout 2, the amount of skill points gained is equal to 100, subtract the current skill level, divide by 10, and then rounded down. Thus, the maximum a skill can increased by books is up to 91%.

All of a sudden it has now been stretched (for no reason other than money) into a five book series. So now I can't get the HEA I was promised for ANOTHER 2 books and based on how many times the release date for Book 3 was pushed back we're looking at sometime around 2015 before we get the ending of the Gideon and Eva Saga.

Fallout 76, in my eyes, remains a failure. It fails as a competent video game and it fails as an entry in the Fallout series. I fully expect someday to return to Fallout 4 or Skyrim yet again as the competent technical platform and pre-built world for modding that they primarily are, and 76 has even failed to rise to that level.
