63 Feminist Analysis of Taslima Nasrin's Lajja eventually affected the lives of Hindu women more adversely as they were left to fend for themselves in the face of vindictive Muslim fanatics. A feminist writer denounces treatment of women as objects of lust, physical and psychological violence.

Feminist Analysis of Taslima Nasrin's Lajja

The feminist thrust of Nasrin in view of the issues pertaining to women, the problems faced by the marginalized Hindus in Bangladesh, and the notions of nation and religion have been intricately woven together in Lajja. As nation is a geo-political entity, so is the body of the woman which is marauded, tortured and abused simply because the narrow nationalistic and fanatic mindset views it as an extension of the former thereby causing what has been discussed above as double marginalization ...
