This also happened with the first book in this series called 'Bad Habit'. Amazing story and great writing with lots of drama and angst that I love but so let down with the ending. This story is about Dare and Logan, and Dare did pop up in the first book so it was nice to get to know his story in this book.

This was a lot more interesting and readable than I thought it would be. It explores the idea of the "Noble Savage" and of "Savages" in general in Western thought since around 1700. The top 3 pros to this book are: 1) There is a huge cast of people who show up in this book.
